Reflection: "You shall be witnesses of me" (Acts 1:8)

Yes, may all we in the Church be what we already are by virtue of baptism: prophets, witnesses, missionaries of the Lord! With the power of the Holy Spirit and to the ends of the earth. Mary, Queen of the missions, pray for us!

Parish/Diocesan News

World Mission Sunday is today 23rd October. It is the Holy Father's annual appeal for spiritual and financial support so that the life-giving work of overseas mission and missionaries can continue. Missio Ireland is part of a global network serving the Church in over 120 countries.

Lectio Divina: Ogonneloe Parish Hall, Tuesdays evenings 8-9pm contact Olivia 0876380201 or olivajodonovan@gmail.com Stars Tuesday 25th Oct. Lectio Divina is a traditional Christian practice of scriptural reading, meditation & prayer that helps to deepen your prayer life. Lectio Divina has been part of monastic life for centuries but has moved to the laity and become more widespread in the last 100 years and can be used as a spiritual practice for individuals or groups.

Rosary: is on every Thursday before Mass for month of October, if anyone would like to join.

Blessing of Graves: will take place on Sunday 6th November. Killin Children's Burial Ground after 11am Mass, New Cemetery directly afterwards, Gate Cemetery at 12:45pm, Hill Cemetery 1:45pm.

7th/8th/9th November: There will be no masses in O'Gonnelloe, Bodyke/Tuamgraney. You are invited to attend mass in Scariff Church at 10am on those days. The Priests of the diocese will be on annual diocesan in-service in Loughrea from Sunday evening November 6th to Wednesday lunch time November 9th. A panel of retired priests have kindly agreed to provide emergency cover during these days, should the need arise.

Remembrance Mass: will take place on Saturday 12th November in St Molua's 8pm for all those within or from our community, who have passed away in the last year.

Remembrance Tree: You are invited to put the names of your deceased loved ones on the leaves provided and hang them on the Remembrance Trees, which will be in both churches during the month of November. This will be a reminder to all of us to remember and pray for the deceased at this very special time of the year.

Family Mass: is starting in Ogonneloe on 20th November at 11am in St Mary's and will continue on the 3rd Sunday each month. Everyone is welcome. As November is the month of remembrance, we invite everyone to bring a leaf (any kind, paper or real!) with the name of a loved one who has died, and children will be asked to bring these to the altar during the mass. We are also looking for children of all ages who would like to participate in some way, this can be reading, saying a prayer, being part of the offertory procession or maybe playing music or singing. Older siblings, parents and grandparents are welcome to accompany a child in these activities. Please text the Parish phone on 0858779113 if your child would like to take part or if you would like to put forward a suggestion for Family Masses in our Parish.

University Maternity Hospital Limerick Annual Remembrance Service will be in person this year at The Church of the Holy Rosary, Ennis Road, Limerick, on Sunday November 6th at 3pm. The Remembrance Service aims to acknowledge and remember the pregnancies that were lost, and the babies who have died through miscarriage, stillbirth and neonatal death. For further information contact Rita OBrien or Marie Hunt, Bereavement Support Department, UMHL on 061 483196.

Community/ Local News

Community Café: We regret to say that ClareCare can no longer provide the Saturday morning café. The Hall Committee would like to get a rota of volunteers to run the café on Saturday's from 10am to 1pm. If you are interested in helping out to keep the café open contact Donal (0872315114) or Michael (0868202917). If there is someone in the community willing to run it on a commercial basis, contact one of the above.
