Reflection:

There is a peace that comes from faith and love and that is prayer: peace that comes from knowing I am heard, understood and loved. It is good to sit each day in silence. Allow this peace to get into you. Breathe in and out, just saying the word peace. That is God's gift to you. There is also a peace from God in doing good and doing the right thing. Jesus knew it was the best gift he could give. It comes from love. Give each of us O Lord, that peace beyond all understanding.
