Transcript of the Holy Father's Appeal for World Mission Sunday 2025

Dear Brothers and Sisters, On World Mission Sunday every year, the whole Church prays, united, particularly for missionaries and the fruitfulness of their apostolic labours. When I served as a missionary priest and then bishop in Peru, I saw first-hand how the faith, the prayer and the generosity shown on World Mission Sunday can transform entire communities. I urge every Catholic parish in the world to take part in World Mission Sunday. Your prayers, your support will help spread the Gospel, provide for pastoral and catechetical programs, help to build new churches, and care for the health and educational needs of our brothers and sisters in mission territories. This October 19th, as we reflect together on our baptismal call to be "missionaries of hope among the peoples," let us commit ourselves anew to the sweet and joyful task of bringing Christ Jesus our Hope to the ends of the earth. Thank you for everything you will do to help me help missionaries throughout the world. God bless you all!

First aiders in Ogonnelloe: a group of people recently received training in basic first aid, CPR and the use of defibrillators and have agreed to share their names so that in case of emergency you may be able to call on one of them. Of course, the first action is always to call 999 or 112 for the emergency services. There is a defibrillator on the outside wall of the National School (the side wall nearest the hurling club) and the code to open the box is C159X. This code is on the National Ambulance Service database so any emergency service has access to it. These are the people who have received training recently: Adrian Reilly, Albert Quigley, Niamh O'Brien, Carol Dreelan, Helen O'Rourke, Alicia Mooney, Brian Kenny, Anne Daly, Molly Orme, Andrea Costelloe, Anna McElhinney, Olivia Horkan, Pamela de Swart.
