Nazareno Feast draws millions

Millions of devotees joined the annual feast of Jesus Nazareno in the longest procession in recent Philippines history, writes Paterno R. Esmaguell II.

The Nazareno procession in Manila lasted 30 hours and 50 minutes, beginning at 4am on 9th January and ending at 10:50am the next day. Recent processions lasted 22 hours or less. The local church reported that 5.5 million people took part while 4 million others joined activities related to the feast, honouring the seventeenth century statue of a dark-skinned Christ, commonly known called the "Black Nazarene". Fr Jade Licuanan, rector of Quiapo Church which house the image, called an end to the procession at 4am on 10th January because medics assigned to the event were already exhausted but this was not heeded. At Least four people died during the procession.
